Cardiff, 17 – 19 September 2018

The 8th International and Interdisciplinary Conference on Applied Linguistics and Professional Practice (ALAPP) will be hosted by

Centre for Language and Communication Research
Cardiff University, UK

ALAPP aims to bring together scholars from different disciplinary backgrounds, especially language and communication research and professional specialities (e.g. business, organisation studies, education, banking, health care, therapy, journalism, law, social care and welfare, immigration and border control, police work, translation and interpreting) to share ideas and discuss interventions.

The ALAPP Masterclass is scheduled on 20 September 2018.

Plenary Speakers

Theresa Lillis
The Open University, UK

Roger Säljö
University of Gothenburg, Sweden

Andrea Whittle
Newcastle University, UK

Local Organising Committee: Michelle Aldridge-Waddon, Tom Bartlett, Michael Handford, Frances Rock, Tereza Spilioti and Virpi Ylänne

ALAPP Founding Advisor: Srikant Sarangi, Aalborg University, Norwegian University of Science and Technology and Cardiff University

ALAPP Coordinator: Bettina Jensen, Aalborg University

Website: http://www.cardiff.ac.uk/conferences/applied-linguistics-and-professional-practice

Abstract submission and submission queries: ALAPPsubmission@hum.aau.dk

All other queries about the conference ALAPP2018@cardiff.ac.uk